

RAN COAL TRAINS BY SLEEPING MOBS

STRIKERS OUTWITTED AT MASSILON LAST NIGHT.

Eight Trains Rushed Through While the Rioters Were Resting on Their Arms Expecting No Move Until Morning—President Adams Will Supplant McBride in Command.

MASSILLON, O. June 15.—The coal blockade on the Lorain road was broken last night without a blow. Eight trains were moved. No movement was expected till this morning and the strikers were taken completely by surprise. The actions of the striking miners at Sherodsville have compelled General Manager Blair of the Wheeling and Lake Erie railway to apply for protection. Ten carloads of troops are en route to the scene of this latest outbreak. The miners are even more defiant in the face of the approaching regiment and threaten to give battle. The strikers set fire to the station and to another bridge, both structures being saved by bridge repair crews. The bridge at Midvale having been repaired the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling railway is now rushing heavily guarded coal trains into Cleveland.

MONONGAHELA CITY, Pa., June 15.—The railway trestle at Old Eagle mines on the Pittsburg and Lake Erie railroad, two and a half miles below here, burned about daylight, and all traffic has been temporarily suspended. The fire was the work of incendiaries. Everything is reported quiet at Manow.

BEACH CITY, Ohio, June 15.—Miners fired on the Barclay-Dubbs pickets, second platoon of Logan rifles, stationed one mile below this city, at 3 o'clock this morning. The fire was returned and a patrol quickly formed under Lieut. Perkins and a thorough search made, but no one was captured.

FROSTBURG, Md., June 15.—The news that Organizer Wilson had been arrested in Lonaconing and taken to Cumberland by Sheriff King, charged with conspiracy, caused a sensation among the Frostburg miners. For some days a break has been expected in Lonaconing, and Wilson was there almost constantly and has used every effort to prevent the miners going to work. While the strikers still insist that they will hold out for 50 cents a ton, it is said by those familiar with the men and with the condition of affairs here that the strike is weakening and that the end is not far off.

MIDVALE, Ohio, June 15.—The situation here is becoming more critical and promises to reach a crisis. General Manager Woodford of the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling has information which leads him to think an attack will be made on the Uhrichville yards and the bridges south of here to-night. Col. Coit will take Gatling guns, Battery H, and Company M and place them in the Uhrichville yards. Considerable coal has been moved north to-day.

GREENSBURG, Pa., June 15.—The pump at the Alverton Coke plant of McClure & Co. was blown up with dynamite shortly after midnight.

More Strikers Under Arrest.
SHELBURN, Ind., June 15.—The deputy sheriffs yesterday served warrants on seven persons to appear at the county seat to-day, with bond, to answer for conspiracy. The men decided to go to jail at Sullivan, refusing to give bond.

The miners here are bitter in their denunciation of the Columbus compromise. The miners also declare the report from Farmersburg that the miners at Shelby and elsewhere in the district are satisfied with the supposed settlement is without foundation.

SULLIVAN, Ind., June 15.—The militia is preparing to leave for home.

HAVE A NEW LEADER.

President Adams Will Supplant McBride, —Will Continue the Contest.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 15.—The rebellion against the joint mining agreement grows. Yesterday President Adams of Shawnee issued the following:

"Under the present existing conditions we, with your executive board, feel it necessary to call a special convention and hereby issue a call for a convention to be held in the city of Columbus, Ohio, Tuesday, June 19, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m. You will therefore please select your best men to represent you, as business of vast importance will have to be acted upon."

"If Ohio miners continue to follow the lead of Adams and refuse to accept the compromise agreement I predict that before a month the Hocking Valley will be forced to go back to work at 40 cents a ton instead of 60 cents secured by the agreement," said President John McBride. "Let our forces become divided or our organization lose the respect of the Hocking Valley operators and they will jump at the chance of reducing wages to 40 cents as they did in 1884, and effectually shut out all competition from the Pittsburg district. With the union out of the way Pittsburg operators will be crowded out of their own markets on account of the natural advantages possessed by the Hocking Valley operators when once they have that opportunity to employ cheap labor."

Mr. McBride claims that the action of the scale committee, including himself, was simply in line with the judgment of the district presidents, who had just come here fresh from the miners and should have been capable of truly representing the wishes of the miners themselves. Therefore if the miners are not satisfied with the action of the national officers in agreeing to the compromise they have nobody to blame but themselves for not properly instructing their district officers.

There is no longer any room to doubt that the miners contemplate compelling their national officers to resign and they further intend to choose a new set to fill their places.

MEN WHO WILL STAY OUT.

Miners Insist Upon a Rejection of the Columbus Conference.

IRONTON, Ohio, June 15.—The miners of this district held a mass meeting at Old Maidsville and decided to stay out until the old wages are restored.

MIDVALE, Ohio, June 15.—The miners here will not indorse the Columbus compromise and are determined not to go to work Monday.

BRAZIL, Ind., June 15.—The miners have received the official report of the action of the Columbus convention. They are greatly dissatisfied and a meeting is called for this afternoon to decide whether to accept or reject the scale. It is believed the scale will be rejected.

SOUTH MCALISTER, I. T., June 15.—The news from the Columbus conference is received with disapproval by all the miners hereabouts. There is much suffering among the families of the striking miners.

DANVILLE, Ill., June 15.—The miners of this locality in a mass meeting repudiated the Columbus schedule and a communication was read from the miners at Clinton, Ind., asking that a delegate be sent to the meeting at Terre Haute Saturday to discuss the situation. A mass meeting will be held to take action on this proposition.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 15.—The mines at Athens and Cantnell, this district, have resumed operations.

FAIRBURY, Ill., June 14.—The miners of the co-operative coal mine here announce that work on its shaft will be resumed at once.

STREATOR, Ill., June 15.—Coal operators are making preparations to resume work Monday. The miners continue to complain bitterly of the Columbus settlement and many charge McBride with having sold them out. A miners' mass meeting has been called.

Powderly Explains His Woes.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 15.—Terence V. Powderly, ex-general master workman of the Knights of Labor, has issued for private circulation among the members of the order a statement containing the inside history of the movement which compelled his retirement. The ex-general master workman closes with an appeal to the members to hold their old assemblies together, but to scrutinize all new ones and not allow so many "paper assemblies" to be organized that the genuine ones will be outvoted at the next general assembly at New Orleans.

Seized Train Is Released.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 15.—United States Marshal Brinton being unable to do anything at Mount Olive, where strikers had sidetracked twelve cars of coal of the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis Railway company, secured fifty stand of arms and ammunition from the state, and had them sent to Mount Olive to arm the special deputy marshals. This move was successful, and trains are now moving as usual.

PANA, Ill., June 15.—A mob of negroes from Camp Pope came to the city and some were arrested for disorderly conduct. The rest expressed their determination to release the prisoners and they were driven out of the city. They made threats.

Will Support Striking Miners.

OSHKOSH, Wis., June 15.—The second convention of the Wisconsin State Confederation of Labor closed yesterday. Resolutions were adopted calling on workmen to not join the national guard, commending Gov. Waite for his action in the gold miners' strike, and pledging support to the striking coal miners.

Iron Miners Make Demands.

IRONWOOD, Mich., June 15.—The iron miners of the Gogebic range have given their ultimatum to the operators, and declare should the demands be not granted by Saturday they will strike and close every mine in the district. Local officials say they can not pay the wages demanded, and will close down the mines for the season, if necessary.

Coke Workers Will Continue on Strike.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., June 15.—The delegate convention of coke workers here yesterday was attended by seventy men, all instructed to continue the strike and they passed a unanimous vote to that effect. Almost every train coming into the region is carrying new men here to take the place of the strikers.

Return to Work in Kentucky.

OWENSBORO, Ky., June 15.—Striking miners at Troy and Cannelton, Ind., have resumed work. Other miners in this section numbering 2,000 will go to work Monday.

CHICAGO, June 15.—Secretary of State Walter Q. Gresham is said to be a candidate of the Illinois populists for United States senator, if

FIVE CROOKS BREAK MILWAUKEE JAIL

DARING JAIL DELIVERY EARLY THIS MORNING.

Robert Eilmann, the Mail Thief; Joseph Freeman, Forger, and Collier McDonald, Frank Malcomb, Emery Weir, Counterfeiters All Get Away—Locks Picked With Wire.

MILWAUKEE, June 15.—Five well known crooks broke jail here early this morning. They were:

ROBERT EILMANN, letter carrier sentenced for two years on conviction of robbing the mails. Thirteen months to serve.

JOSEPH FREEMAN, forger awaiting trial.

COLLIER McDONALD, counterfeiter, awaiting trial.

FRANK MALCOLM, counterfeiter, awaiting trial.

EMERY WEIR, forger, awaiting trial.

They picked the locks in their cells with a bit of wire, sawed through two sets of bars, wove a rope and dropped from the roof. The escape was most cleverly managed.

Killed His Family and Himself.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 15.—Early last evening the home of John Kauffman at North Cramer Hill, on the outskirts of Camden, N. J., was entered and the bodies of Mrs. Kauffman, her infant, and twin boys were found with throats cut from ear to ear, while on the wall hung the body of Kauffman himself, who had committed suicide after murdering his wife and children. Kauffman became despondent from failure to get work.

Angry Husband Kills a Politician.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 15.—William Delaney, ex-city clerk, one of the best known democratic politicians in Buffalo, was shot and killed in his room last evening by George A. Bartholomy, a tallyman at the Ontario elevator. The police will not say whether Mrs. Bartholomy was in Delaney's rooms at the time he was shot. They refuse also to give the name of the woman who was with Bartholomy when he went to Delaney's rooms.

ARDMORE, I. T., June 15.—The officials of the looted bank at Longview have identified the greater portion of the money, $830, which Mrs. Dalton had in her valise at the Wallace house, as that stolen from them at the time of the robbery. Dalton's remains are still here.

SOUND A WAK NOTE.

Resolutions Before the Railway Union Attacking Engineers.

CHICAGO, June 15.—After three days of preliminary work the American Railway Union convention yesterday chose standing committees and to-day reports from them will be submitted. A proposition to admit street railway employees was tabled yesterday. Resolutions attacking the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers was introduced by the St. Paul delegation. They ring with hostility. The election of officers will not take place until next Monday or Tuesday. It is thought the present officers will be re-elected, with the addition of six more vice-presidents, several directors and a number of organizers. It is the intention of the present officers, if re-elected, and of the delegates to push the organization more rapidly in the second than in the first year of its existence. The present membership is about 125,000 in some 425 unions, and it is expected that this number will be doubled within the ensuing year.

Officers of the Railway Men's Union, which is altogether distinct from the American Railway Union, were elected yesterday morning at the closing session of the organization's annual convention held at the Revere house. They are: Grand chief carman, J. D. Stevenson, East St. Louis, vice; F. A. Symonds, Texarkana; secretary and treasurer, F. L. Romemus, Estherville, Iowa; executive board, William Prince, Chattanooga, Ira T. Corbett, Fort Worth, and William Boyd, Omaha. The convention will meet again in June, 1896, at Chattanooga. The general offices of the union will be moved to Kansas City.

TOMB OF 200 MEN IS KARWIN MINE

FEARFUL EXPLOSION OF FIRE DAMP TODAY.

Shafts and Passage-Ways Filled With Toilers are Turned Into Catacombs Peopled With the Dead—Many Entombed Alive Amid the Blazing Coal.

VIENNA, June 15.—Fearful loss of life came from the explosion of fire damp in the coal mines of Karwin, Austria Silesia, last night. Two hundred miners were killed and a large number entombed, the mines now burning fiercely. The death of the entombed men is certain and the loss of life will reach nearly three hundred.

Princes Put In Prison.

LONDON, June 15.—A dispatch from Tangier says that it is reported that the chief princes of Morocco, who are likely to cause trouble to the new regime, have been removed from their commands in the army. Some of them have been sent to distant provinces, while others have been imprisoned.

The dispatch adds that it has transpired that in his political testament the late sultan directed that a council of regency be appointed until his young son, Abdul Aziz, the present sultan, attains his majority.

Lord Coleridge Dead.

LONDON, June 15.—Lord Chief Justice Coleridge is dead. Lord Coleridge had been ill for a long time and his life was despaired of several weeks ago.

WON'T INTERCHANGE CARDS.

Knights of Labor Men Discuss Attitude of the Federation.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 15.—In speaking of the interchange of working cards, which the federationists at the recent labor conference would not allow, Secretary Hayes of the Knights of Labor said:

"This was one of the principal questions that came up and it was tabled. I tell you there was very little accomplished at this session. It is a hard matter to accomplish much good when the federation is bucking against us."

T. B. McGuire of the executive board of the Knights of Labor said: "The interchange of working cards was the only thing that could accomplish concerted action. The federationists would like it if we would break up the Knights of Labor and join them in a body. Now, why should we do this? We are willing to recognize their cards and we do it. The carpenters in New York without a Knights of Labor card could get no work. We are in the majority there and we recognize the federationists, but do they reciprocate? Not much! They made no proposition to us; we did all the proposing, and I can not say that after all there was much accomplished."

DISCUSS THE A. P. A.

Conference of Swedish Baptists of Minnesota at Minneapolis.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 15.—Interest attaches to the thirty-six annual conference of the Swedish Baptists of Minnesota, which convened in the Elm church this afternoon, by the announcement that the A. P. A. question will be fully discussed and that resolutions committing the body to a support of A. P. A. principles will be strenuously pushed by several of the delegates. The introduction of the question is liable to cause some friction in the conference and to disturb the record for good will and unanimity that has been made by the conference the last thirty-five years. The temperance and prohibition questions will also receive the usual attention.

Three Hundred Houses Burned.

PANAMA, Colombia, via Galveston, Texas, June 15.—The fire which started here Wednesday afternoon was got under control at 12:30 in the morning, a drizzling rain having commenced to fall at midnight. The flames consumed five blocks of property, including the prefecture, police headquarters, forty business buildings, and 300 tenement houses. The total loss is now estimated at $500,000.

Turn in the Tide of Gold.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The cash balance in the treasury yesterday was $115,386,570, of which $69,021,388 was gold reserve. The fact that there were no gold engagements and that $300,000 of the amount engaged Wednesday had been returned to the treasury is regarded as a very hopeful sign, and, it is believed, indicates that the outflow has about run its course and will soon cease.

Politics Break Up a Reunion.

YANKTON, S. D., June 15.—The soldiers' reunion here has broken up in a row, owing to a populist attempt to turn it into a political meeting, and a large number of the visitors have returned to their homes. Griggsby of Sioux Falls made a strong populist speech to an audience of 1,000, and this caused the trouble.

Iowa Village Will Be Sold.

NO VOTE ON THE WOOL SCHEDULE.

Attack on Representative Holman's Policy in the House—Sugar Investigation.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—It was hoped by the leaders that a vote would be reached last evening on the subject of free wool, and a final agreement to that effect was reached between Senators Harris and Aldrich, representing the democratic and republican sides of the chamber, but the republican leader found it impossible to control his forces sufficiently to carry out the contract. Senator Dolph of Oregon had the floor at the hour of adjournment, and will hold it as long as he pleases. Senator Aldrich will follow, and then it is probable that the vote will be taken. After the raw material is disposed of, the manufactured products will probably be rushed through under the five minute rule.

Senator Lodge began the argument of the day discussing the wool schedule. Mr. Teller (rep., Colo.) followed him with some remarks in favor of a duty on raw wool. Mr. Vest joined Mr. Aldrich in an emphatic denial that there had been any bargains to obtain prohibitory duties.

Mr. Hoar, as one of the representatives of the great woolen manufacturing states in the country, indorsed the statements that the New England manufacturers did not desire free wool. Mr. Platt (rep., Conn.) followed with a similar argument, denying that the woolen manufacturers favored free wool. Mr. Higgins (rep., Del.) spoke in opposition to free wool. Mr. Chandler talked for an hour in favor of ample protection.

Mr. Dolph made an argument against free wool. During the progress of his speech he remarked that it was whispered about the senate that the opposition to the bill had surrendered and that the bill would pass before the end of the present month. If he could prevent it, he declared the bill would not be voted upon until the people had a chance to give an expression of their opinion at the general elections next fall. When the hour of 6 o'clock arrived and Mr. Harris showed no sign of moving an adjournment Mr. Quay interrupted Mr. Dolph and asked him if it would not be convenient for him to proceed to-day. After some debate Mr. Quay moved to adjourn, but the motion was lost, 16 to 23, whereupon Mr. Quay moved that the senate proceed with the consideration of executive business. This motion was defeated, 10 to 44.

Mr. Harris, after again calling attention to the interminable delay upon the bill, yielded to the inevitable, but he held out the threat of a night session unless a vote was had to-day.

JOHNSON'S ATTACK ON HOLMAN.

Says the Indiana Man's Plan Is to Exterminate Indians.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Ten minutes after meeting yesterday the house went into committee of the whole on the Indian appropriation bill. An amendment by Mr. Pickler appropriating $5,000 for artesian wells at Pine Ridge, Rosebud and Standing Rock agencies was agreed to.

A bitter personal attack was made on Mr. Holman by Mr. Johnson of Indiana. He asserted that the habit of "juggling" with the Indian appropriation bill would soon result in the extermination of the Indian, which purpose, he believed, was at the bottom of Mr. Holman's assignment to the chairmanship of the committee on Indian affairs. During all this tirade Mr. Holman sat quietly in his seat, giving no indication of having heard a word.

The old sectarian question in connection with Indian schools was raised by Mr. Gear, who offered an amendment providing:

"It is hereby declared that it is the purpose of this act that no money herein appropriated shall be paid for education in sectarian schools, and the secretary of the interior is hereby authorized and required to make all needful rules and regulations to prevent the use of said funds in sectarian schools."

All the Senators Must Answer.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The sugar trust investigation committee will begin to question senators to-day, and it is understood, will have every member of the senate before them before ceasing this line of their inquiry. The idea of the committee is to have every senator answer for himself as to whether he has bought or sold sugar stock, furnished information concerning tariff legislation on sugar, or has been in any way improperly influenced in his official actions by the trust. There was but one witness before the committee yesterday and his evidence was unimportant.

Jerry Simpson Improving.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Representative Jerry Simpson is steadily improving at Berkeley Springs, W. V., and it is thought he may be able to return here soon.

COXEYITES IN JAIL AT JULESBURG

LAW AT LAST ENFORCED IN COLORADO.

Seventy of the Commonwealers Caught by the Deputies and the Rest Scatter—Their Attempt to Seize a Union Pacific Locomotive Foiled by Trainmen Who Open a Switch.

JULESBURG, Colo., June 15.—Deputies captured seventy of the commonwealers today and took them to Denver. The others are scattering. This is the first time Governor Waite has sanctioned any attempt to enforce law. The general comment is that he has been touched by the fierce scoring received. Yesterday the band of 500 Coxeyites created much excitement here by seizing a Union Pacific engine. They at once started to make up a train and had nearly succeeded and would have been on their way east by this time but for the fact that their engine ran into an open switch and was ditched.

CHINESE ASK AID FROM IDOLS.

Plague-Stricken Appeal to Gods—Will Not Rely on Authorities.

HONG KONG, June 15.—Despite the efforts made by the officials to keep the record of deaths in this city caused by the plague, it has been definitely learned that since the pestilence broke out, May 4, seventeen hundred persons have been claimed as its victims. This is the mortality for Hong Kong alone in a little over a month. In Canton the effects of the plague have been much worse. There is scarcely a house that does not have some one dead in it, or some member of a family writhing in the agonizing throes of the disease. The plague commenced there in the Mohammedan quarters, and over 100 cases have been daily reported since the outbreak.

Very fortunately the disease has not spread to the European population in this city, although contrary reports have gained circulation. The European residents have taken strict precautionary measures. They have avoided association with the Chinese, kept away from infected districts and used all kinds of fumigating disinfectants. This has doubtless caused their immunity from sickness so far.

Although it is reported by the officials that the epidemic is decreasing in severity, it is noticed that the death list yesterday numbered eighty-two persons. There has been a general exodus from the Chinese quarters, and the condemned streets have been blocked by the authorities. At first an inclination was shown by the residents in the Chinese quarters to assist the authorities in wiping out the disease, but later when the mortality became greater, the people became distrustful, and refused to allow the officials to enter their homes. Officers making a house to house visitation were stoned and houses barricaded against their approach. In Canton this sort of feeling against the authorities, who are doing all in their power to get control over this scourge, has grown almost to a frenzy on the part of the Chinese. Placards have been posted in the streets there declaring that if the governor destroys the Chinese quarters, the British section of the city, located on the Island of Sha-mien, will be burned. This shows the degree of desperation to which they have been reduced. The work of the government in smothering the pest is necessarily conducted under adverse circumstances, and without the cooperation of the people the matter becomes more difficult each day. The worship of idols among the Chinese is carried on with a fervor amounting to madness. The people look to their gods for relief, and will not trust the health officers, thereby giving the disease a greater hold.

OLD LIBERTY BELL IS MOVED.

Is Placed in a Handsome Case in Independence Hall.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 15.—The old liberty bell has been taken down from the place where it has been suspended in Independence hall and placed in a handsome square pavilion made of quartered oak and glass. It is situated in the middle of the east room, occupying 72 square feet of floor space, and is the most striking of all the relics by reason of its magnificent house. The case is made of selected quartered oak, is 5 feet 1 inch square and 10 feet high, with a front of 12 feet in height. On each of the four sides is a large plate glass, over four feet wide and seven feet high in the center. At each corner is a bronze pillar surmounted by neat carved work, while over each of the glass sides is an arch with the names of the thirteen original states carved, that of Pennsylvania being on a keystone.

Relic of Johnstown Flood.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 15.—While digging a trench through a cellar filled up by the flood of 1889, workmen unearthed a parlor car that was lost from the fated day express at Cone maugh. It is believed that further search will unearth bodies of persons lost on that train.

Consolidated Men at Work.

DANVILLE, Ill., June 14.—The miners at Mission Field mines of the Consolidated Coal company has gone to work at the old wage.

HOW COUNTY FOLKS SPEND HOT DAYS

SHERIFF BEAR SETTLES HIS MILTON CLAIM.

Town Pays Him $42—Candidates For the Assembly Sounding Voters—W. A. Mayhew and S. S. Jones, of Clinton, Test Public Sentiment—Rye Hurt By the Frost.

MILTON, June 15.—The board of supervisors have settled the claim of Sheriff Bear against the town for injuries received on the highway, by paying him forty-two dollars. W. A. Mayhew of Clinton, who is likely to be a candidate for the assembly from this district, was a visitor in the village Tuesday. S. S. Jones of Clinton, who is also a candidate for the assembly from this district, was here Wednesday looking up his chances for support. W. A. Jackson, of Janesville, candidate for district attorney, was here this week. The joint contest at the Methodist church on Tuesday evening was a success. The new church was crowded, the music by the Janesville quartette was most excellent and the ladies won. The judges were Professor S. L. Maxson, Mrs. H. E. Osborn and Miss Crockett, and the markings were on five points, giving each contestant a chance to stand fifty, or a total of two hundred on each side if perfect. The ladies scored 178, and the men 108. The men, of course, feel badly to think they couldn't win, but as they belong to that class of large hearted and generous fellows that enjoy defeat, when beaten by the ladies they cheerfully submit. Mrs. J. E. Davidson took the prize for the highest standing of the eight contestants. College field day next Thursday the 21st instant. The college cabinet received quite recently from S. S. Jones, of Clinton, an otter, which he received a year ago. It is a very large and handsome specimen of that animal, and friends of the institution unite with the curator in returning thanks to Mr. Jones for his gift. A gang of Coxeyites, numbering about twenty, walked into the village Wednesday noon. They did no boding, but about an hour later boarded an empty car on the west-bound way freight and left town. H. Jackson has opened his new meat market and now has a place of business that is much superior to those usually found in places of this size. In addition to his stock of meats he has a nice assortment of salt and canned fish and meat of the best packs. It is a pleasure to buy goods in such a neat and tasty shop. Miss Sallie Loofboro, of Welton, Iowa, arrived in the village Wednesday, and is the guest of her sister, Mrs. G. R. Boss. Professor Albert Whitford is at Dodge Center, Minnesota, attending the Northwestern association of Seventh-Day Baptists. The sheds in the rear of the Seventh Day Baptist church are being rebuilt by Prof. A. R. Crandall and when completed will be an improvement that all can appreciate. Ninety-five degrees above zero in the shade Thursday caused a demand for ice. The ladies of the Harmony W. C. T. U. will hold a "Bazaar" at the home of Mrs. Frank Story, Wednesday, June 20, beginning at 5 o'clock p. m. and continuing through the evening. A good program will be presented. Strawberries and cream will be served. If stormy it will be held the following evening. Admissions to the grounds free. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Whitford, of Newton, Kansas, spent a part of the week with their father, Professor A. Whitford, returning home Thursday. Mr. Whitford is a conductor on the Santa Fe system. The road commissioner has completed the new side walk on College street and it is built of two inch dressed plank, in fact it is a "dandy." W. W. Clark keeps the best and cheapest line of fountain pens in town. Miss Kittie Waterman has a new piano that is a beauty. The windmill of the railroad company has been repaired and Operator Davy hopes to be relieved from pumping by steam. Miss Lottie Maxson has been attending the commencement exercises of the Necedah high school, of which her brother, C. H. Maxson is principal. Professor Kumlein's botany class took an outing this week. John B. Saunders, of Morgan Park, Ill. was in town this week to see his father and other relatives.

EVANSVILLE CREAMERY ON FIRE.

Small Damage Done—Green County Families Moving to the Village

EVANSVILLE, June 15.—The Evansville creamery took fire Tuesday morning but the blaze was extinguished with no loss except a few burned shingles. It is supposed to have been started by a spark from the chimney. George W. Dibble has sold his farm of 260 acres to Michael North of Monticello, for $11,000. Mr. North thinks a number from Monticello will, in the near future buy homes in and near Evansville. All are welcome. Mr. Sheldon, traveling salesman, is enjoying a vacation with his family here. C. J. Pearsall of the firm of D. E. Wood & Co. and manager of the Wisconsin line of creameries, rejoices over the advent of a fine girl baby, a recent arrival. Mrs. William Scholtz of Brooklyn, and Miss Maude Fisher of Oregon, are guests of their brother, M. J. Fisher. Mr. Luse of Kansas City, is visiting relatives here after several years' absence.

SHOPIERE RYE HURT BY FROST.

Other Grain Flourishes But the Hay Crop Will Be Light.

SHOPIERE, June 15.—The late frosts have injured the rye crop to some extent. Other grain is all right but the hay crop will be light. This hot dry weather makes lots of work for our blacksmiths, setting tires. Children's concert at the Methodist church on last Sunday evening was well attended, the program a fine collection of pieces and the decorations beautiful. The Beloit College Serenade club will give a concert at the Congregational church Wednesday evening, June 20. M. McCusky, elocutionist, will accompany them. Admission will be twenty-five cents. Mrs. J. P. Fonda is getting very low. The warm weather affects her very much. H. D. Brown is building an annex to his house.

GRADUATION DAY IN FULTON.

Appropriate Observance by Pupils and Teachers—Local Personal Notes.

FULTON, June 15.—The village schools closed Friday, after a very successful year under the instruction of Miss Lucy Whitmore and Miss Jessie Kelley. The closing exercises were held in the church, which was profusely and tastefully decorated with flowers. Prayer was offered by Pastor Rowell. The essays of the graduates, together with singing and recitations by the younger classes, formed an interesting programme. There were six graduates, their names and subjects being: Mabel C. Lee, "People of the Earth"; Nell F. Pease, "A Week at Camp Fun"; Edith Coon, "Rome"; Minnie K. Brown, "Evangeline"; Katie Coon, "Fulton's Needs"; Eva M. Pearson, "Modes of Travel." District Clerk Howard Lee presented diplomas. The exercises were largely attended, and at the close all repaired to Shaw's grove and enjoyed a picnic supper. Several Edgerton young ladies attended the school picnic, also Orrie and Maude Brace of Janesville. Miss Bashe Pease closed a very successful term of school in the Brace district, June 1. Miss Maggie Ely of Madison, N. J., is visiting her brother, Will

BRIEF NOTES FROM ORFORDVILLE.

ORFORDVILLE, June 15.—Services at the Baptist church Sundays conducted by the Baptist minister of Brodhead. Mr. and Mrs. John Gavey, of Marengo, Ill., will soon visit their many friends and relatives here. Quarterly meeting held at the M. E. church June 3rd, was well attended. Children's Day will be observed at the M. E. church Sunday morning. We are glad to learn of the recovery of Mrs. Bert Taylor who has been sick so long. Memorial services were not held here but many friends visited the "silent city" and placed flowers on the graves. Mr. and Mrs. Ganmon, of Beloit, called on friends here last week.

ALUMNI MET TODAY IN THE HIGH SCHOOL

OLD DAYS RECALLED BY THE GATHERING.

Officers For the Coming Twelve Months Elected and Plans For the Reception this Evening Perfected—The Programme—Senior Concert Successful in Every Respect.

Members of the High School Alumni association held their annual meeting in the high school this morning. They held it in the Lincoln school one year but it didn't seem official. The members all pined for a chance once a year to visit the room where they spent four profitable years. Today there was an attendance of twenty-eight. Mrs. Beers, the president, called the meeting to order. The report of the secretary, Miss Mary Davies, was read and approved. The report of the treasurer, Miss May Clark, showed that the association was in good financial condition, $32.84 being on hand. The officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President—Mrs. Hugh Menzies. Vice President—Mrs. T. S. Noian. Secretary—Mary E. Davies. Treasurer—E. May Clark.

It was decided that the entering class should pay fifty cents upon entering and fifty cents a year afterwards. Members two years or more in arrears will be dropped. A committee of two is to be appointed to receive items from members of each class, concerning that class, which should be introduced in a paper called The News Record, and be read next year.

Letters were read from absent members and former superintendents. Miss Lizzie Paterson was made an honorary member, and the meeting adjourned.

The Reception This Evening.

The yearly reception will be given in Columbia hall tonight. Shurtleff will serve refreshments and this will be the programme:

Enjoyable Senior Concert.

It didn't look as though the opera house was crowded last night, but there was a $220 audience and a very appreciative audience at that. Every number on the programme was enjoyed. The quartette gave five numbers, "Forget-Me-Not," by Mair; "Old Kentucky Home," arranged by Anderson; "Matin and Evensong," by Mosher; "Woodlawn Rose," by Sprague, and "Annie Laurie," by Dudley Buck. For encore they gave "Coming 'Thro' the Rye," "Jack and Jill" and several other popular airs. The quartette is made up of Ariel Nichols and Adele V. Holman, sopranos, Nellie Manlove and Ida Powell, altos. Miss Lucia B. Griffin, the clever little entertainer was suffering from nervous prostration and was hardly able to appear on the stage, but came on after half an hour's delay and gave several numbers. "Josiah Allen's Wife," and her essay on music were especially enjoyable.

CROPS HURT BY THE DROUGHT.

Hot Weather Injures Grain As Well as Forcing It Forward.

The continuation of the drought has retarded crop growth, which together with the slight damage from frosts in some sections, makes the crop prospects less favorable than last week. Corn is not materially injured and is now being cultivated. On the whole, the corn crop is doing well. Winter wheat and rye in the central districts is heading out; the intense heat of the past few days has brought the crop forward very rapidly.

A great need of rain is felt throughout the state, and unless the drought is broken much harm will result. The prospect for a large hay crop is less promising than last week, and it is probable that only a fair crop will be secured. Potatoes are probably suffering from the drought and a reduction in the yield will result unless rain soon comes. Potato bugs have appeared in a few counties only.

CRAZY FOLKS YELLED ALL NIGHT

Car-Load of Insane People Made Night Hideous.

There were forty-five chronic insane people on the special train Wednesday evening from Mendota to the Rock county asylum. Of this number twenty-one are credited to Rock county; nine to the state at large; eight to La Fayette county; four from Crawford; three from Richland. The trip was made without trouble or incident, the unfortunate people remaining very quiet in the car. They were somewhat excited, however, on arriving at their new home, many remaining up all night, singing and yelling, and the new asylum was kept stirring until morning. There are now one hundred and thirty-three patients in the Rock county asylum.

A New Landlord.

The Park Hotel is now in the hands of Mrs. Archie Galbraith, of the Galbraith hotel. Mrs. Galbraith assisted by her husband took hold of the Highland House the 7th of last September and changed it to the Galbraith hotel. From the moment they assumed control of that popular hostelry their trade began to increase and has kept on increasing until the house became too small. The Park not being permanently engaged, was leased by Mrs. Galbraith, and control assumed last evening. It is an assured fact that Mrs. Galbraith will make this one of the most popular hotels in the city. Her ability as a hostess is unsurpassed, and the table will be fully in keeping with the good city of Janesville. It is quite fortunate that the Park has fallen into the hands of Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith, as they will put it on a paying basis and conduct a first class hotel in every respect. They invite their many friends to visit them, also strangers, who will be accorded a hearty welcome at all times.

Worked on the Spot Made Famous by the Somewhat Well Known and Expert Jack Hess—New Cement Mortar Stopped Them—Dungeoned For the Next Twenty Days.

Three bad men who are locked in the Rock county jail tired of their uncomfortable surroundings, and yesterday they tried to break jail. T. J. Forbes, the man who is charged with pocket picking, James Prien charged with forgery and George Balzer who got money under false pretenses were the three. The spot that they worked on was the one made famous by Jack Hess, who used to take a few burnt matches and a quantity of will power and dig out. Since Jack's last job of that kind the stone has been put in with cement mortar and this was too hard even for hard men. The gang dug out several bushels of plaster before they were detected and then came their punishment. All three now merit to be in the deep dark, dank dungeon while each day a portion of bread and water is pushed to them and this way they will live for the next twenty days. The men were confined in the lower corridor of the bastille.

Born, Not Made

Weak by imprudence, are many stomachs. Puny people have invariably weak digestion. The robust as a rule eat heartily and assimilate their food. A naturally weak stomach, or one that has become, although not so originally, derives needful aid from this thorough stomachic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The restoration of vigor to the delicate is the prompt effect of a resource to this professionally sanctioned and universally esteemed promoter of health. Nervousness—a symptom of chronic indigestion—is overcome by it. So are liver complaint and constipation. Incipient rheumatism and kidney trouble it defeats thoroughly, and it constitutes an efficient defense against malaria. But in order that the full benefit derivable from its use should be available, it should not be used in a haphazard way, but continually. The same suggestion holds good of all standard remedies.

REIGN OF THE RAINBOW.

All Its Colors Popular Now and Often Worn by the Wrong Woman.

Almost all colors, bright and dull, light and dark, are fashionable this year and are worn too often with a reckless disregard of their becomingness to the individual. The fact that a certain tint is in vogue is a sufficient recommendation of it in some women's eyes, and they eagerly adopt it without stopping to consider whether it heightens or diminishes the effect of their personal charms. Orange, for instance, is to be worn only by a decided brunette or by the dark haired, creamy complexioned woman with clear gray eyes. The latter is the one type of whom it may truly be said that she can wear almost every color, preference being given to decided shades. But if orange be fashionable the fair woman with pale brown tresses trims her hat with it, forgetting that the rich color will overpower all the subtle ruddy and golden tints in her hair and make it look dull and drab toned. Magenta is almost as trying as orange and can be worn successfully only by women having dark, gray or white hair, characteristics so noticeable in themselves as not to be rendered insignificant by the juxtaposition of a striking tint. Sharp, solid blues, greens and purples are also dangerous to indulge in unadvisedly. Blue and purple especially, of all tones, should be carefully handled, as they bring out very strongly any hint of sallowness in the skin. Clear red is the most universally becoming of any bright color and combines well with nearly everything. Dull tan and ecru shades are better for the majority of persons than clear gray, the latter appertaining properly only to women with rosy cheeks. If they have gray hair also, the harmony is complete. A knowledge of complementary colors and a clear-sightedness in regard to one's own characteristics of face and figure are all that are needed to insure correct dressing.

A sketch is given of a gray silk gown trimmed with black lace. The lower skirt is of gray moire and is plaited. Over this is worn a princess gown of pearl gray taffeta, caught up in front by a large black velvet bow and trimmed with a flounce of black lace. The corsage is covered with drapery of black lace held in place by small velvet bows. The sleeves are composed of three puffs trimmed with bows of black satin. The black lace bonnet is trimmed with mauve flowers and jet.

GOOD OUT OF EVIL.

Woman's Extravagance In Hard Times Puts Bread In the Mouths of the Poor.

Just so often as "hard times" recur, just so often comes an increase in the volume of the outcry against women's extravagance as exhibited in the indulgence in personal luxury, either in the way of clothing or surroundings. It has been said that the poor we shall have always with us, and the innate truth of the saying must be apparent, in spite of the theories of altruistic dreamers, as long as nature herself is partial in the distribution of health, strength and native ability. Nature having set us a bad example of inequality in vital matters, we cannot hope to ever establish perfect equality in superficial affairs. Not to wander from the point, the very poor who are imbibed by the extravagance of the rich earn their daily bread by ministering to it.

If in a time of financial depression everybody refused to buy silk, furniture, carriages, china and the thousand and one unnecessary articles on which wealthy persons spend their money, an incalculable number of workers would be thrown out of employment and reduced to the condition of paupers. Every garment, carpet, piano, mirror and roll of wall paper represents a number of branches of labor upon each of which men and women are dependent for the means of living. If the demand for these articles stops, they will cease to be manufactured and will no longer afford occupation to the wage earner. The rich persons who are the real enemies of the poor are the miserly class who hoard their wealth instead of scattering it and do no more to encourage trade and keep money in brisk circulation than does the poor artisan himself. This is a comparatively small proportion of the wealthy minority, however. Most persons who have money spend it freely in every direction.

A sketch is given of a rather odd bodice of two materials. The vest and sleeve puffs are of figured goods, while the full surplice corsage and cuffs are of plain stuff. The end of the left side of the bodice is carried around the waist and buttoned in front to form a girdle.

HARPER'S HISTORY OF THE WAR

Harper's Pictorial History is universally recognized as the best history of the war yet published. This superb work has never been sold for less than $16 to $30. It has been sold only by subscription and but a very few men have been able to buy it.

The pages are the same size as Harper's Weekly and the work contains all the illustrations appearing in that great paper during the war. The work was edited by Richard Grant White and Henry M. Alden and is authentic, complete and reliable.

We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish Gazette subscribers with this splendid history of twenty-six parts at ten cents a part. These twenty-six parts will contain over one thousand war pictures and will make two handsome volumes when bound.

Many official documents of priceless historic value are quoted in full in the copious foot notes, such for instance as Lincoln's inauguration speeches, articles of federation of the early states, constitution of the United States, ordinance of secession, and many important papers, speeches, etc. The war story is consecutive and very fascinating. The introductory chapters, leading up to the struggle, and the chapter on the reconstruction period, are by some of the first writers of the age.

There they were hired out, and Josiah worked for a master named St. Clair, whose daughter was kind to him. THE PRETTY GIRL,

And the Drummer Who Tried to Make an Impression.

The drummer was leaning up against the hotel counter talking to the clerk.

"You look worried about something," said the clerk.

"I am," responded the drummer, promptly. "I saw the prettiest girl on the train to-day I have seen in a dozen years of travel."

"That oughtn't to worry you."

"Pretty women have worried better men than I am," ventured the drummer.

"Who was she?"

"Blamed if I know."

"Didn't you get acquainted with her?"

"Of course not; you must think I get acquainted with every woman I see."

"You do, don't you?"

"No, I don't; nor do any of us; that's a vile slander on the profession."

"Did you try to?" asked the clerk, with a smile of doubt.

"No, I didn't."

"Then what's worrying you?"

"The way she treated me."

"What did she do?"

The drummer fired his half-smoked cigar at the cuspidor viciously.

"Well," he explained, "after I had been gazing at her for an hour or so, I thought I'd try her with a newspaper; she declined it with thanks and a beautiful smile; then I tried her with a new novel, with the same result; then I sent her over some nice fresh fruit, and it came back; then I wanted to fix the window for her, and again the thanks and the declination. That lovely smile is what broke me up," said the drummer, "and I was sure, if I had half a chance, I would get acquainted. About ten minutes after I had made the last offer the train stopped at a station, and she nodded for me to come over. By George, I was sure I had made a ten-strike, and I fairly flew to her."

"Will you do me a favor?" she asked, with that same enchanting smile, as if I wouldn't have done her a million," and the drummer sighed again.

"Certainly, with the greatest of pleasure," said I.

"Well," says she, "suppose you get off at this station and take the train that comes along this evening; you make me dead tired where you are."

The clerk's eyes filled with tears and the drummer went out and stood in the door gloomily.

DOCTOR'S ATONEMENT FOR MISS DUMFO'S INJURY.

C. R. Lindeman Takes Her From the Janesville School to His Home in Centerville, S. D.—Dr. Hodge to Deliver the Baccalaureate Address at Wayland University.

MARY DUMFO, the handsome Norwegian girl sent to the Janesville asylum for the blind at the expense of generous citizens of Chippewa Falls, has been written for by Dr. C. R. Lindeman, of Centerville, S. D., under whose treatment she lost her sight. He says he led her astray by his professional advice and consequently feels honor bound to marry her. At least, this is the story printed in today's Milwaukee Sentinel. Superintendent Lynn S. Pease of the school for the blind says Miss Dumfo left the school two weeks ago at the written request of Dr. Lindeman, but the doctor at that time claimed to be her half brother and to be taking her to Dakota for treatment. Whichever story is true it is evident that somebody has lied. Miss Dumfo is partially paralyzed and would not have been discharged by Superintendent Pease had she not claimed Lindeman to be her brother.

MOSHER WAS SHOT AS HE LAY ASLEEP

MURDER, NOT SUICIDE, THE CORONERS' JURY SAY.

Came to His Death at the Hand of Some Person Other than Himself and to the Jury Unknown Was the Verdict—Testimony of the Witnesses.

Howard Mosher did not kill himself. It was murder.

So the coroners' jury decided this noon, and returned a verdict that "Mosher came to his death from the effects of a gunshot wound inflicted by some person other than himself and to the jury unknown."

Mystery was added to the case by the inquiries of the officers and the inquest, but the theory of murder was strengthened. Dr. Palmer testified in substance that Mosher could not, in his opinion, have killed himself and got in the position in which he was found, and Dr. Loomis corroborated him. Erik Westby picked up the revolver, but laid it back in the same place again and nobody touched the body except James Mole, who simply turned Mosher's head to allow him to breathe easier. The inquest was conducted by M. S. Prichard and District Attorney Wheeler, and was held in the municipal court room.

Mrs. Mosher's Story.

Mrs. Catherine Mosher, wife of the dead man, was the first witness. She swore that she had been married to Mosher eight years. Thomas Caldwell, a cousin of the witness, lived with her and her husband. He was a carpenter and came here from Massachusetts to work for Mr. Mosher. Work was slack so Caldwell had nothing to do until the day before Mosher's death when both worked on George Warner's house. Mr. Mosher was not home all the evening, but went to Knipp's brewery about 6:30. He returned at 8:45. Caldwell went down toward the river soon after Mosher left. The witness went to bed at 9:50 and her husband returned ten minutes later. Caldwell had not gone to bed yet. The witness occupied the same bed with her husband and their child slept in the same room. Mosher was not in the habit of drinking to excess, and Mrs. Mosher did not think he was intoxicated when he came home. Mrs. Mosher first learned of her husband's death when some thing awakened her. She was lying on her right side on the back side of the bed with her face away from him. She could not tell what the noise was that awakened her, but got up immediately, getting out of bed on the opposite side from her husband, there being about a foot of space between the bed and the wall. When she got up she looked over her shoulder at him and then walked around to the front of the bed. When she saw the blood on his face she screamed and ran down to her cousin, and the latter helped her back up stairs. She did not speak to Mosher at all.

Revolver But Toward the Foot.

Mosher lay on his left side with one hand on his breast and the other one slightly extended. He did not move, Mrs. Mosher thought. The revolver lay by the wrist of his right arm just above the hand with the handle toward the foot of the bed. She did not notice that he was bleeding except that his "face looked black." The witness did not touch the body or the revolver after the shooting. Caldwell was asleep when she went down and the witness awakened him by calling. Caldwell at once arose and helped her up stairs. The witness knew of no reason why her husband should kill himself. His business matters he kept to himself. The night of his death he was in unusually good spirits and had not had trouble with any one that she knew of. Mrs. Mosher said she had been feeling badly for a year. She identified a handkerchief as hers that District Attorney Wheeler handed her and accounted for the blood on it by saying that she had the nose bleed while watching the fire at Colling's shop which she could see from the house. The handkerchief was found under the pillow of the bed and the witness said she put it there herself. Her husband did not stir when she heard the noise. Caldwell did not touch the revolver and when they got bank down stairs Caldwell went to notify the neighbors.

Could Not Have Shot Himself.

Dr. Henry Palmer was then sworn, and said that the body lay on the left side in a natural position on the bed. The bullet wound was near the right ear. The bed was filled with clots of blood and blood had also run on the floor. The arms were folded one under the head and the other outside. The right hand was partially flexed, and the revolver lay two inches from the elbow with all but two chambers loaded. The hair about the wound was singed and the surface well filled with powder, indicating that the revolver was held near the head. Fragments of bone had been driven through the brain, and the ball had taken a zig zag course. The wound was the cause of death. The revolver must have been held within two or three inches of Mosher's head. The bed showed that Mosher had moved his feet spasmodically after receiving the wound. There could be no voluntary movement of the body receiving such a wound. The arms could not have been moved to any considerable extent after receiving such a wound. The sheet was folded partially around the left hand and the right hand was just against the sheet. If the revolver had been held in a way that would fire the shot to inflict the wound found, the position would have been such that blood must have spurted over the arm instead of over the shoulder as it had. Mosher could not place the revolver in the position in which it was found himself. Someone else must have placed it where it was.

Dr. Loomis Corroborates Dr. Palmer.

Dr. Loomis was then sworn saying that Caldwell summoned him to attend to Mosher about 4 o'clock on the morning of the shooting. Mosher was alive but unconscious at that time but died about 5:20. He corroborated Dr. Palmer's testimony as to the position of the body, and the wounds thereon, and said also that the arms were folded with the right hand partially flexed and slightly turned under the left arm. Mosher could not have moved voluntarily after receiving such a wound and the involuntary movement would be very slight and there were none while the witness was there. The revolver lay as Dr. Palmer said it did. The bed showed no evidence of having been occupied by more than one person that night and the bed clothing was not disturbed as it would have been had any one gotten out of it as Mrs. Mosher said she did. The body lay so that there was room for another person in the bed. It would not be possible, he thought for Mosher to have shot himself and then gotten into the position in which he was found.

Caldwell Heard No Sound.

John Caldwell, Mrs. Mosher's cousin, who boarded at the house was next sworn. West Warren, Mass., was his home and his wife now resided there. Mosher wrote him to come here and learn the carpenter's trade which he did, Mosher having plenty of work at the time. The witness had never met Mosher or his wife until he got here, but had been corresponding with Mosher for a year. When Caldwell got here work was slack and there was nothing for him to do. His relations with Mosher were friendly and he did not know of Mosher's ever having trouble with any one. Caldwell could not tell just when he went to bed that night but thought it might have been 9:30 and after Mr. and Mrs. Mosher had retired. Nobody slept with him and he heard no noise at night until Mrs. Mosher called.

"John! John! Howard is shot!"

Caldwell then got up and ran up stairs with her. He told how the body lay, and continuing said that the revolver lay with the handle away from the body. Nobody touched the revolver or the body while Caldwell was there. Soon after the witness went for the neighbors and for Dr. Loomis. Mrs. Mosher was in her night dress when he first saw her.

Westby Moved the Revolver.

Erik Westby, who lives opposite Mosher's house, testified that Caldwell came for him about 4 o'clock. Caldwell said Mosher had shot himself. When Westby got there Mrs. Mosher was sitting on the couch down stairs, and when the witness and James Mole went up stairs, she did not go with them. Westby picked up the revolver and then placed it in the same spot where it lay before.

James Mole was the next witness and told about Westby's coming for him and his going to the house. Mole raised Mosher's head and twisted it around so he could breathe better but did not touch his arm and he did not think Westby did either although he would not be sure about it.

William J. Mosher, the dead man's brother, said that he knew of no reason why he should kill himself. He had never heard of him having trouble with anyone.

At this point the inquest ended and the jury went out returning in twenty minutes with a verdict that Mosher came to his death from a gunshot wound inflicted by some person other than himself and to the jury unknown.

BOY BATHERS GIVEN WARNING

Mayor Thoroughgood Makes a Suggestion Against Indecent Exposure

The mayor's attention having been called to the many acts of lewdness perpetrated within the city limits, especially the bathing in the river, I therefore append the amended ordinance, relating to this matter, and will instruct the police to keep strict watch and arrest all persons who improperly expose themselves while bathing or otherwise transgress the provisions of the ordinance. The mayor hopes this warning will be sufficient to put a stop to the indecencies practiced by many while bathing in the river. He will consider it a favor if the steamboat captain or other individuals will furnish information concerning any breach. Section 4 of an ordinance entitled "an ordinance to prevent disorderly practices" as amended reads:

"No person shall frequent or resort to any house of ill-fame within said city for the purpose of prostitution or lewdness, or do any lewd or lascivious or obscene act in any street or public place, or within the sight of any person, or use any profane or obscene language in any street or public place, or within hearing of any person."

TRAMPS PUT A RAIL ACROSS THE TRACK

ATTEMPT TO WRECK A MILWAUKEE PASSENGER.

Engineer of the 7:15 Passenger Sees the Obstruction Just in time to Prevent a Catastrophe—Railroad Detectives at Work on the Case—A Raid on Afton.

Tramps who have been ousted by train men, tried to wreck the C. M. & St. P. morning passenger three miles north of this city to-day. The train leaves Janesville at 7:15 bound for Milwaukee, and makes a fast run. Fifty rods this side of the three-mile crossing an obstruction was seen on the track and the engine was reversed. Before it could be stopped the wheels had struck a thirty-foot rail lying across the track. The speed had been so slackened by this time, however, that no damage resulted.

Superintendent W. G. Collins was at once notified and put the company's detectives at work. The affair is regarded as very serious by the railroad authorities and every effort will be made to apprehend the guilty ones.

Nine tramps were mixed up in the terrorizing of Afton and the entering of Peter Drafahl's house. Only three entered the Drafahl house, one holding a revolver at Mr. Drafahl's head. As soon as the alarm was given half a dozen men turned out armed with shot guns. They found the nine tramps near the depot and drove them up the track.

The Beautiful Niagara Falls,

so impressive and grand, sending its torrents to the depths below and on through the whirlpool where wild waves lash each other in the fierce combat is the greatest of nature's wonders. Yet there is another picture of this weird cataract—a picture which horrifies the mind of him who would observe. Many there are whose mind has lost its light of reason and whose body has been thrown to the mercy of this gigantic waterfall. With heart-felt mercy we shudder for the poor unfortunates, yet in earlier years it was in their own hands to prolong life and reason. The catalogue is full of nervous diseases caused by a diseased stomach, and one who would be sure of a sound body and a sound mind should look well after this organ. The great regulator of the stomach, liver and kidneys is Dr. McChesney's Kidney and Liver Cure, a purely vegetable compound and a health restoring medicine. Your health is too precious to experiment with inferior remedies. One hundred doses in each bottle. The readers of the Gazette, will find this remedy on sale for one dollar ($1) per bottle at all drugstores.
